Fall 2022 starting September 13/14 ending November 15/16

Precept Romans Part 3 -How to reconcile the free will of man with the election of God. Is it even possible? By God's grace and diligent, inductive study of His word we will dive into these seemingly contradictory topics and by the time we finish the study of Romans chapters 9-11 we will be established in His truth.

The material is written in such a way that it is not necessary to have done Romans Precept parts 1-2. Workbooks $20, registration closes Sunday September 4th

Class times - Tuesday mornings via Zoom, 9:30-11 am, Tuesday evenings on site at CCCS, 7-8:30pm, Wednesday mornings on site at CCCS, 9:30-11 am

Winter 2023 starting January 10/11, ending March 7/8

"The righteous shall live by faith" What practical things can a believer do to live out a life of faith in Christ? Romans 12-16 are very practical chapters that teach how our redemption and justification enable us to live righteously, serving God.

The material is written in such a way that it is not necessary to have done Romans Precept parts 1-3. Workbooks $20, registration closes Sunday January 1, 2023
